

Leafy torrens title duplex, stroll to school

Centrally set within walking distance to Glenhaven Public School, this inviting duplex is ideal for investors or small families. Embracing a natural bush outlook from the rear of the residence, it has a lovely leafy ambience. Ground floor living zones are well laid out to provide versatile social spaces. The generous lounge room transitions to a family room that gazes over the backyard. Breakfast bar seating defines the practical kitchen which connects to a covered pergola and level patch of lawn.

An oversized master bedroom has room for a study space and includes a deep walk-in wardrobe and an ensuite. Built-in wardrobes feature in the two other good-sized bedrooms. This property's handy location is 10 minutes by foot to the primary school and a stroll to the caf? and park. Entertainment, restaurants and the future rail link at Castle Towers are a short bus trip or drive away.
