

Light-soaked atrium and a textured aesthetic

Poised on the high side of a popular street, this unique residence is bathed in natural light. A central atrium illuminates the living areas in warmth and uplifting sunlight. Naturally textured interiors have vaulted ceilings, timber panelling and interior brick walls. A wet bar links the lounge and dining rooms, signalling them as zones to gather and relax. The full-width alfresco has built-in bench seating and steps up to picturesque lawn with a paved area, promising spacious outdoor entertaining.

Three bedrooms open to the balcony and a roomy ensuite with raised corner tub serves the master retreat. The fourth bedroom on the lower ground floor enjoys private access and its own bathroom, presenting possibility for independent accommodation. Located moments to Knightsbridge Shops, Samuel Gilbert Public School and the park, this inviting home is five minutes to the future Showground station.
