Impressive in scale and offering spacious, superbly flexible living over two levels with ample room for in-law accommodation, this 43 sq. residence provides an outstanding family haven with plenty of room to move. Impeccably presented with abundant street appeal, it showcases multiple living areas including a lower level formal lounge with access to either formal dining or separate office area, this continues into a light and airy designer gas galley-style kitchen flowing onto meals zone and sunlit family room. At the rear of the property is a large home theatre room. The lower level also comprises a fifth bedroom supported by a full third bathroom with shower; which creates the overall diversity for multi-family living.

Upstairs an additional oversize lounge room / kids retreat offers a range of lifestyle options, while all four remaining bedrooms boast ample proportions, including a massive
