

Ideally Located With Abundant Potential

Perfectly positioned to take full advantage of the dynamic current and long-term growth of Riverstone, this well presented single level cottage enjoys an established, convenient setting within easy walking distance to railway station and bus routes. A level 537sqm block provides ample space for growing families or future plans, while the character residence features separate lounge with open fireplace, light-filled, open plan dining and gas kitchen with stainless steel appliances, along with three bedrooms, master featuring walk-in robes. An expansive covered deck area provides an ideal focal point for relaxed outdoor entertaining, opening out to a deep, fully grassed rear garden with handy storage shed. With a wealth of new retail precincts, recreational facilities and transport options planned for the region, this property represents an exciting opportunity for further capital growth.
