

Character and Charm

Exuding all the elegance and intrinsic charm of a more gracious era, this character residence set amongst delightful gardens, enjoys a tranquil, high set position on over 12 acres (approx.4.8ha) with bushland outlook.

Awash with natural light and with soaring ceilings ensuring a real sense of spaciousness, it offers multiple formal and informal living areas including generous den/study and sun drenched family room with vaulted timber ceilings while wraparound verandahs maximise the leafy views and creating an enviable flow between indoors and out.

The home's lower level with bedroom, ample rumpus and bathroom lends itself to range of uses including teen retreat and in-law accommodation.
