91 Spur Place Glenorie NSW

5 5 3

Offering 3.6 acres of blissful peace, this inviting home basks in the beauty of its natural surrounds. It is positioned to capture the glorious bush views from the covered alfresco that extends along the length of the house. Fluid living spaces link to a meals area and spacious gas kitchen. The master bedroom boasts a twin vanity ensuite and walk-in wardrobe and is well separated from the rest of the home. Two bedrooms have ensuites, built in robes and access to external entertaining areas, reflecting the home's original purpose as a bed-and-breakfast.

A brand new, Council-approved cottage creates the potential for passive income or accommodation for extended family. This one bedroom dwelling has its own living area, a large deck, laundry and a garage, promising absolute independence. Well-kept grounds include mature fruit trees, a chicken coop and established herb, waterwick
