Enchanting bush views and cul-de-sac privacy promise a relaxing family haven. A choice of entertaining decks maximises the lush green landscape, with an inground pool and cabana for resort-style fun. Vaulted skylit ceilings rise over the open family zone which shows off a Caesarstone kitchen with steamer oven, new appliances and a 40mm waterfall island bench. Stacked stone above the fireplace reflects the natural landscape from the formal lounge, while a luxury of space affords a huge theatre.

North-facing bedrooms include ensuites for four bedrooms and walk-in wardrobes for five. Two masters two children's rooms occupy the top floor. On the ground a floor a granny flat has its own access, rumpus and a bar. With direct access to Bidjigal Reserve, this home is five minutes to Castle Towers, the metro and Eric Mobbs Reserve.
