Timeless sophistication defines this architect designed home bathed in natural light. High ceilings and two balcony voids soar over the ingenious layout which has a blend of communal and private spaces. A sunken living room connects to a formal lounge which overlooks the saltwater pool through picture windows. An expansive dining zone sits under the lightwell joining the 80mm Caesarstone kitchen. A chef's paradise, it has a 900mm oven, gas cooktop, endless bench space and a butler's pantry to conceal mess. Glass stackers invite you out to a covered alfresco with integrated kitchen for effortless entertaining.

Bedrooms are sumptuous and include a luxe master with double shower ensuite, dressing room and a walk-in wardrobe. A rumpus connects all four bedrooms while heated towel rails in both bathrooms add hotel-style comfort. Set in a quiet pocket of The Ponds, it's moments
