Harnessing period features and abundant natural light, this recently renovated charismatic home comes with a freestanding granny flat. High ceilings emphasise the hardwood timber floors and the vast open living zone. It hosts a refurbished and remodelled high end kitchen with island seating, wine storage and a modern gas cooktop. Step out to an entertaining deck that looks over the back yard fringed with lush greenery. An ornate ceiling defines the light-soaked master bedroom which has an adjoining study.

Suited to an investor seeking a dual income property or a family wanting to live with in-laws, the granny flat has its own yard, private deck and a comfortable layout with air conditioning. Located metres to the park and footsteps to Our Lady of Lourdes Primary School, childcare and M2 express city buses, this home promises endless options
