Seamlessly integrating indoor and outdoor zones, this stylishly appointed residence impresses with its choice of living areas. The living, dining and kitchen flow with an open layout that's adaptable for evolving families. White joinery and stone benchtops turn heads in the kitchen where a waterfall edge island seats six while a walk-in pantry, undercabinet lights, and a window splashback enhance the practical design. Glass sliders lead out to the tiled alfresco from the kitchen and living areas, promising effortless play and entertaining.

A timber and glass staircase transitions up to the bedrooms and a TV lounge ideal for children. Bonus upgrades throughout include stone benches for the bathrooms including in the master ensuite. This home's high side setting is a walk to Schofields Public School, Riverstone High School and Norwest Christian College with Tallawong
