Palatial proportions and architectural design offer grand entertaining spaces on 2.8 acres with a prestigious address. All ground floor rooms have alfresco access, blurring the lines between inside and out. An enormous open living zone includes a timber and stone-topped island kitchen with walk-in pantry. It leads to an elegant curved terrace with a treetop backdrop, onto which the formal lounge and dining rooms open.

The sizeable office is well-scaled for running a business from home with separate access and the media room adds another versatile living space. A separate pool house has two bedroom accommodation for in-laws, extended families or offers rental income. With its own kitchen, storage spaces, overside bedrooms and living area, it has house-like dimensions. Set in bushland surrounds, this enticing home is five minutes to Round Corner and
