On five level arable acres, this exceptional residence is modelled on the iconic Elizabeth Farm homestead in Parramatta. Ideal as a semi-rural retreat or a family home, it has a beautiful character and is ready for a renovation or extension that pays homage to its heritage. Formal lounge and family spaces open to the outside with a wraparound verandah at the rear looking to the inground pool. The timber kitchen enjoys a picturesque outlook and easy connection to the formal dining room.

Western red cedar French windows & doors and exposed timber beams create a country ambience that beautifully echoes the home's rural landscape. Bedrooms all have integrated storage and the master its own bathroom while the main bathroom is centred by a cast iron claw foot bath. Combustion fireplaces offer winter warmth and European trees full of Autumn colour showcase this property's
