With an emphasis on easy family living, this immaculate single level home enjoys a sought-after quiet cul-de-sac location. Free flowing formal and informal living spaces provide an abundance of space which growing families will appreciate. Granite benchtops frame the centrally positioned kitchen which has stainless-steel appliances, plenty of bench space and storage. Living areas look to the secluded al-fresco spaces and the grassy yard, which provides space for the kids to run and play.

The light-filled master bedroom is set away from the living zones and boasts a walk-in wardrobe and ensuite. Clever design positions the three other well-sized bedrooms with easy access to the main bathroom with a corner bathtub. With buses and Bernie Mullane Sporting Complex in walking distance, the address also enjoys easy access to Rouse Hill Town Centre, Kellyville metro and the growing
