5  3  3

Nestled on just under five lush acres in a secluded Annangrove enclave, this inviting family retreat prioritizes tranquillity and privacy without compromising on convenience. Ensconced behind a veil of mature trees, the main residence is bathed in natural light and generously proportioned, seamlessly connecting indoor living spaces with outdoor entertaining areas. Emphasizing privacy, the single-level layout encompasses various living zones, including an open living and dining area, and an additional family room.

Designed for easy hosting, the contemporary kitchen has stainless-steel Westinghouse cooking appliances, abundant storage, and access to the outdoor rumpus room through bi-fold windows. A huge pergola at the rear of the home and verandah to the front provide secluded spots to appreciate the scenic surroundings and pool.
