Positioned in a quiet street, this tastefully refreshed family home offers both versatility and convenient living. Light-filled interiors feature open plan meals and living zones while an additional rumpus area offers potential as a teenage retreat, gym or home office space. Functional kitchen, which includes an electric cooktop, built-in pantry and an abundance of storage. Glass sliding doors from the family room open to a covered outdoor pergola. Large grassed backyard with cubby house for the children.

All four bedrooms are set away from the living zones for peace and quiet, are well-sized and include built-in storage. Both bathrooms are renovated and are accessible from the master suite as well as the living zones, and features floor to ceiling tiling as well as a separate toilet. The address is within close proximity to Schofield's station, buses, local shops and schools.
