Enviably located within the sought-after Roxborough Park estate, this neat home offers a low maintenance lifestyle coupled with potential for transformation into a dreamy family retreat. Spread over a delightful single level floorplan, the home boasts an open plan living and dining zone to the left of the entry as well as a cozy family room complete with the ambience of a fireplace. The generous kitchen features a built-in pantry, plenty of cupboard space and ample bench space for food preparation. The backyard is large and child-friendly, with room to create an outdoor haven and add play equipment.

Three well-sized bedrooms are set in their own wing for peace and quiet. An ensuite adds privacy to the master bedroom while a generous main bathroom serves the home. This ultra-convenient address is a short stroll from buses, Alfred Henry Whaling Memorial Reserve, Waves
