

12 Forest Place Galston NSW

Nestled in a peaceful setting on a large parcel, this impeccably renovated home epitomises the essence of relaxed living. Spread across a sun-drenched single level, the contemporary design ensures a low-maintenance and tranquil lifestyle. The open-plan living and dining area seamlessly connects to the rear yard, providing an inviting space for family gatherings. The stunning kitchen is framed by stone benchtops, and includes a built-in pantry, modern stainless-steel cooking appliances and a convenient servery window straight through to the alfresco. Double glass doors open from the dining zone to a covered, spotted gum deck, which offers the perfect space to host guests while relishing the lush surrounds. The backyard is large and child friendly, with established gardens giving privacy to the yard, while still allowing plenty of space for play equipment.
