

112 Cecil Avenue Castle Hill NSW

6  4  4

Occupying a prized address right in the heart of Castle Hill, this expansive dual level residence is a dream come true for large families seeking a home perfect for multi-generational family living. Two generous levels offer an abundance of living space prime for renovation, with potential to keep the character the home already offers while adding your personal touches. The architecturally-designed masterpiece features appealing touches such as high ceilings with exposed timber beams and feature walls, connecting expansive living zones to the full-length front balcony which offers the perfect place to enjoy the afternoon breeze while enjoying the district views. Flowing from the rear, an outdoor entertaining area with a built-in barbecue makes entertaining simple.

The ground floor has its own external access for privacy and features its own kitchen, full bathroom and retreat style
