A standout outdoor entertaining area with a pool gives this much loved home brilliant family appeal. Freshly painted interiors in perfect condition have plantation shutters to provide absolute privacy from the street. A timber fireplace heats the L-shaped formal lounge and dining rooms. Hardwood timber floors run through the large kitchen and family room. With stainless steel appliances and a garden outlook, the kitchen is the light-filled hub of the home.

The covered entertaining areas is accessible through both the formal and casual living zones. It extends out to an open pergola that merges with level lawn and a saltwater inground pool. Renovated just 12 months ago, it has an automatic chlorinator and new tiles and paint. Side access provides ample storage for a boat or caravan, with two driveways for easy parking. Glenhaven Public School is a five minute walk and its a quick drive to Round Corner and
