Set on five pristine acres (2.02 hectares) just minutes from Galston Village, this impressive split-level property delivers exceptional versatility and country charm. Designed for family living and entertaining, the main residence features an updated kitchen flowing to a large covered alfresco area perfect for gatherings or relaxed afternoons. Split system air conditioning and a cosy wood fireplace ensure year-round comfort, while multiple zones of accommodation make it ideal for extended family living or offer excellent potential for income return.

The layout is perfectly suited to multigenerational living, with separate self-contained wings and a dedicated rumpus/multipurpose space with its own entry-ideal for guests, in-laws, or rental options. Outdoor amenities include a stunning billabong-style saltwater pool offering a private, resort-like retreat. A versatile separate space is
